

Now pray my love put by that frown and dont begin to scold
 You really will persuade me soon youre growing cross and old
 I only stopped at Grovers gate young Fannys eye to catch
 I wont I swear ^{I wont} be made to keep time like a watch

It took you then two hours to boot two hours take off your hat!
 I wish you'd ^{love} that way to me apropos of that I saw you making love to her (you see I know it all)
 I saw you making love to her at Lady Glossops Ball

Now really Jane your temper is so very odd to day
 You jealous and of such a girl as little Fanny Grey make love to her! indeed my dear you could see no such thing
 I sat a minute by her side to turquoise ring
 I tell

I tell you that I saw it all the whispering and grimace
 The flitting and cogweting in her little foolish face
 Oh! Charles I wonder that the earth dont open where you stand
 By the heavens that is above us both I saw you kiss her hand

I didnt love! or if I did allowing that is true
 When a pretty women shows her rings what can a poor man do
 My life! my soul! my darling Jane, I love but you alone
 I never thought of Fanny Grey how tiresome she has grown

Put down your hat dont take your stick now prithce As do stay you never come to see me now but you long to run away
There was a time there was a time you never wished to go
What have I done What have I done dear Charles to change you so

Pook! pook! my love I am not changed but dinner is at eight
And my Father's is so particular he never likes to wait Good bye! Good-bye! you'll come again yes one of these days hes turned the street Stephen he would he's gone Fanny Grey

Will you be so good sir to come at last I thought you'd come I've waited with my bonnet on from one till half past four
You know I hate to sit alone unsolaced where to go
You'll break my heart I fear you will if you continue so
